Founded: 2007

Description: Aspasia is an international peer-reviewed yearbook dedicated to publishing the best new scholarship in women's and gender history of Central, Eastern, and Southeastern Europe (CESEE). This region includes the territory currently occupied by the countries of Albania, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Georgia, Greece, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Turkey, and Ukraine; as well as Armenia, Azerbaijan, and Georgia. In these countries the field of women's and gender history has developed unevenly and has remained only marginally represented in the "international" canon. Through its contributions, Aspasia transforms "European women's history" into more than Western European women's history, as is still often the case, and expands the comparative angle of research on women and gender to all parts of Europe.

Founded: 2006

Description: Early Modern Women: An Interdisciplinary Journal (EMWJ) is the only peer-reviewed academic journal devoted to the interdisciplinary and global study of women and gender during the years 1400 to 1700. Each issue of this annual journal reflects the energies of this rapidly growing field by publishing essays, art exhibition and book reviews, bibliographies, and a forum on a current topic of interest to the study of early modern women. Essays may consider women and gender from any region of the globe and may develop a number of scholarly perspectives, including but not limited to art history, cultural studies, history, history of philosophy, history of science, literature, music, politics, religion, or theater. Approaches that challenge current assumptions and cross disciplinary boundaries are especially welcome.

Founded: 2014

Description: Polyester is a celebration of all things trash, kitsch and camp. A backlash against the fashion industry's infatuation with understated and over conceptualised minimalism, Polyester aims to prove that this subculture is both an informer of fashion and has an equally intellectual underpinning. We've all grown up on the Internet so much so that the lines have blurred between our IRL and URL, but here at Polyester we noticed that what we're reading about online is barely penetrating the real world. Other publications may touch on it, featuring us in an isolated feature or themed 'girls' issue, but we all know our interests are worth so much more than that.
